Students are the key. Performance standards to which all children thrive, regardless of economic status, must be met. Local educational agencies also must ensure safe and healthy learning environments for all children. Performance standards to which all children thrive, regardless of economic status, must be met. Local educational agencies also must ensure safe and healthy learning environments for all children.

McKinney-Vento Program

- Help your child develop good study habits.
- Make education a family priority.
- Ask for a copy of your child’s school records.
- Start the transfer of your records.
- Enroll in school immediately, even if you don’t have all the paperwork.

How can you help your child?

If you move, you should...

- Have your child attend school.
- Inform the school of your choice and address of the child.
- Send the school the date you are leaving.
- Make sure your child attends school.

If your child is assigned to a school not of your choosing, the school district must enroll your child. If your child is assigned to a school not of your choosing, the school district must enroll your child.

The rights of homeless children

- Go to school, no matter where you live.
- Attend school while the dispute is being resolved.
- Attend school if your child is assigned to a school not of your choosing. If your child is assigned to a school not of your choosing, the school district must enroll your child.

Parents and their children